

Personal, Social and Emotional

- Jigsaw PSED programme: Dreams and Goals / Healthy Me.
- Turn taking games
- Self-selection of resources to continue and build upon play
- Peer Massage and appropriate touch

Literacy

- Author of the Term: Eric Carle/ Martin Waddell
- Power of Reading fiction - The Leopard's Drum, Aaaarrghhh Spider, Oh no George, Tanka Tanka Skunk
- Sharing non-fiction/ information books about creatures
- Creating labels/ fact sheets/ signs for our zoo animals
- Writing and posting a letter to invite parents to our zoo day
- Creating zoo maps
- Continued daily phonics teaching
- Using our phonic knowledge/ red and green words in our writing

Mathematical Development

- Finding out about 1 more and 1 less (numbers to 5 then 10).
- Teen Numbers
- Addition and subtraction using concrete resources/ pictorial representations/ abstract number sentences.
- Exploring money- counting in 1's/2's/5's/10's for our zoo shop and café.
- Exploring size.

Communication and Language

- Listening and responding to each other's ideas in circle time discussions
- Listening and responding to stories
- Becoming zoo guides
- Word Aware vocabulary programme
- Story Squares

Physical Development

- Real PE programme Social and Creative Skills
- Travelling through/ under/ over equipment- moving like animals
- Transporting equipment safely
- Letter formation
- Healthy Eating

Creatures

Term 3 & 4

Understanding of the World

- Looking at a variety of creatures (pets/wild/sea animals) where do they live? What do they eat? Where could you find them in the world?
- Matching animals to habitats
- How do we look after animals?
- Look closely at animal prints
- Computing: Phonics Play, researching creatures.
- Talking about a variety of occupations (visit from a vet/zoo guide/ parent)
- Chinese New Year

Expressive Arts and Design

- Artist of the Term: Barbara Hepworth & Jackson Pollock
- Investigating animal prints and patterns
- Observational drawings of creatures on a small and large scale
- Creating large scale animals for our zoo day
- Exploring paint and collage techniques
- Learning animal songs in Singing Assembly
- Using a deconstructed role play area to enhance our role play skills

WOW Starter We are planning a trip to the Bristol zoo gardens.

Fantastic Finale You will be invited to our 'zoo day' in school.

Curriculum Products Visit wild animals/ look after an animal/ post a letter.